Minutes of the La Salle University Curriculum Committee for October 12, 2000

Present: R. Nigro (Chair), J. Baky, P. Brazina, G. Bruce, Bro. L. Colhocker, S. DeTurk, E. Giardino, K. Kozen, B. Millard, A. O'Connor, R. Palladino, J. Seltzer, C. Sheahan, S. Wiley, and Z. Wolf.

Minutes

Minutes for September 28, 2000 were reviewed and approved as presented (9-0-2)

Discussion

A discussion of the criteria by which new core course would be evaluated based on the Core Curriculum Guidelines and the Core Curriculum Course Description resulted in several points of concern.

How will the committee insure that:

- there will not be a preponderance of courses that identify the more easily defined goals and few courses to meet the less obvious more difficult to achieve goals,
- departments do not expect that another department will satisfy the emphasis on international goals,
- departments can provide consistency where there are large numbers of sections being offered, especially in courses that stress skill development,
- university wide all the goals of the curriculum are met?

J. Seltzer suggested that the opportunity to look at a collection of courses instead of individual course in terms of learning goals might simplify the methods by which decisions are made. S. DeTurk asked that departments give evidence of how the goals are being met instead of simply listing goals in response to question number 3 on the Core Curriculum Course Descriptions.

The role of the Arts and Science Curriculum Committee was deliberated. B. Millard explained they had reviewed most courses and made recommendations to departments. The revised course description would be brought to this committee for final approval. She did not see a need for the A & S Committee to revisit those courses. R. Nigro held that the Curriculum belongs to the University and that a University body (this committee) should make final decisions about the Core.

S. DeTurk called attention to the challenge facing the committee in evaluation of courses scheduled in the Patterns of Meaning sequence.

Meeting adjourned at 1:35 pm.

Student Affairs Committee * November 9, 2000 * Meeting Minutes

Present: Joseph Cicala (chair), Sharon Armstrong, January Baker, Ray Bonnette, Rob Bush, Jessica Fenchel, Doug Kukta, Georgina Murphy, Matt York. Guest: Ed Lawless.

1. An opening reflection was offered, new and returning members and our guest were introduced, and our agenda was reviewed.
2. October 12, 2000 minutes were reviewed and formally approved. (Prior approval had been obtained via e-mail and the minutes have been published in Campus News. It is expected and it has been expressed by Dr. Cicala to all chairs that University committees under the auspices of the Student Affairs Committee and/or the Division of Student Affairs will regularly publish minutes in Campus News from this point forward.)
3. We discussed the written response by John Gallagher, of Security & Safety, to our recently proffered recommendations regarding parking on campus. We agreed that John's responses to our suggestions are informative and reasonable ones. We wish, as well, to gain some sense of the potential solutions, both short-term and long-term, that Security & Safety might be considering in response to our community's parking problems. We also discussed the operations of our Shuttle System. Dr. Cicala will invite John Gallagher and Director Bob Levins to join us for further discussion of these topics at an upcoming meeting.
4. Subcommittee and work-group updates. The members of the three groups discussed at our last meeting (those that will, respectively, review our Code of Conduct, our Club Sports program, and our parental notification policies) have largely been identified, as of this date. Charge statements are being written and the groups will be formally convened and charged in the near future.
5. Mr. Lawless described and participated in discussion about the new IBC Fitness Center, which he directs. Mr. Lawless acknowledged the contributions to the center's refurbishment made with Student Activity Fee funds, with the spring, 2000 approval of this committee, which allowed the center to be outfitted with 95% new equipment, all of which was paid for with those funds. We discussed the features of the center, hours of operation, usage patterns, and policies and procedures. Members were apprised of the upcoming formal dedication of the center, scheduled for November 20. SGA President Megan Barnett will represent her fellow students as a speaker at the ceremony.

6. Announcements.

- a. Kudos were voiced for the current and upcoming initiatives by, among others, S.A.V.E. and the Community Development staff regarding issues of diversity, tolerance, and justice.
- b. Members were reminded of the currently underway series of open meetings for students and the representatives of H2L2, the firm guiding the Campus Master Planning process. Members were reminded, as well, of the availability of the on-line survey supporting the process, available through the Brother Luwis system.
- c. Members were apprised of the upcoming Jazz Band concert (November 11), the Masque's production of Assassins (November 10-12, 16-18), the Thanksgiving Dinner (November 14) to be co-sponsored and hosted by Food Services and the Division of Student Affairs in the Blue and Gold Dining Commons, and the Student Organization Advisors Training session (November 30) to be offered to all current and prospective advisors by the Division of Student Affairs Staff Development Team. It was observed that the notice appearing in the recent issue of Campus News could have included information about who is eligible to be an advisor; that will be made more clear in future notices.

7. New business.

- a. Prof. Armstrong observed that, as we undertake the consideration of general policies and procedures affecting students, we consider the issue of the representation of graduate students and their interests in our work and on our University committees. The same can be said for Continuing Education students. We will return to this issue for formal discussion in the near future. In the meantime, all committees and work groups are encouraged to keep the diversity of our student populations clearly in mind as we review and recommend revisions to our policies and procedures.
- b. Our student members expressed questions and concerns about the hours of operation of a number of University services and centers, including the Library, the Food Court, the Blue and Gold Dining Commons, and the Computer Labs. Information will be gathered through discussion between the members listed below and the personnel responsible for those services and centers, for purposes of review and discussion at our next meeting.

Funding is available for City As Classroom activities for the Spring, 2001, semester. Applications will be accepted until Friday, December 8. An application form is attached to this memo.

The Council of Deans has adopted the following guidelines for review of City As Classroom funding applications:

Goal: to facilitate the use of the resources of the Greater Philadelphia Metropolitan area in the educational experience of students.

Guidelines for funding evaluation:

1. Priority will be given to funding for undergraduate classes.
2. Priority will be given to funding for activities that will not be available in future semesters (e.g., a special exhibit at a museum, a concert or play and so forth).
3. Priority will be given to discrete events rather than underwriting continuing costs of student participation in activities required by a course.
4. The number of participants can be given priority in decisions on funding.
5. Funding of admission costs will be limited to $12.00 per person.
6. When transportation is involved, the first choice is University-owned vehicles. If that is not feasible, rental must be arranged through the University's Purchasing Office.

Walking the Labyrinth: Journey to the Center

The Labyrinth is a metaphor for life's journey. It is a symbol that creates sacred time and space. It is designed to offer ways of finding peace, managing stress, discerning life decisions, or healing physically and psychologically. This presentation provides an opportunity to learn about the history of the labyrinth and its current applications and to participate in a labyrinth walk.

Diplomacy and the Sex Trafficking of Women and Children

The forced prostitution and trafficking of women and children is part of a $7 billion industry worldwide. Between 700,000 and 2 million women and children are trafficked globally each year.

About 50,000 immigrant women enter the United States each year for the purpose of prostitution.

They come from Southeast Asia, Latin America, Central and Eastern Europe. They are as close to us as Philadelphia's massage parlors. Their trade is the result of poverty, corruption, and international crime.

International law provides sound principle but no mechanisms of enforcement.

The House last month passed legislation aimed at cracking down on traffickers. Its impact will be limited to cases where "forced" prostitution can be proven, leaving the burden of proof to the exploited.

Invited countries and organizations include: Sweden, the Netherlands, Poland, the Ukraine, Russia, Australia, Thailand, Philippines, Mexico, the United States (U.S. Department of State, U.S. Department of Justice, FBI, INS) and Human Rights Watch.

Please consider integrating the Program in your spring 2001 course syllabi.

Call for Student Nominations & Faculty/Staff Involvement/Participation

The Division of Student Affairs seeks nominations of emerging student leaders to attend the King's Dream 2001 leadership program. The Division also seeks Faculty & Staff to facilitate discussions and/or attend the program.

The program will consist of two tracks for student nominees to choose from. The first track will consist of an experiential program working with neighborhood youth. The second track will consist of a typical conference format.

FAQ

What is the purpose of the King's Dream Program?

King's Dream was developed to provide opportunities for students that challenge, educate, and motivate them to be more successful leaders on campus; increase student awareness of how they have an impact on the community; challenge students to think more deeply about social justice issues; and empower students by educating them to understand procedures and options for creating change. The King's Dream program also gives students, faculty, and staff the opportunity to interact outside the classroom/work setting.

Why should I nominate a student?

We are asking for nominations of emerging student leaders; students who may show great promise in the classroom, work, or organizational setting, but have not yet found their niche on campus. We are looking for student nominees who may not be identified as campus leaders, yet you see their potential. We want to invite students to King's Dream who will benefit from the experience, as well as enjoy attending a challenging experiential and discussion based programs.

How do I nominate students?

Develop a list of students that you feel fit the criteria above and e-mail their full names to Kim Graham at graham@lasalle.edu or Jenean Snider at snider@lasalle.edu.

How can I or current student leaders get involved?

As a current student leader, faculty, or staff member we invite you to facilitate a breakout discussion during the course of the day or attend as a participant, both can be equally rewarding.

Remember . . . Martin Luther King, Jr. Day is a day ON, not a day OFF!

What are examples of discussion topics?

Some examples of discussion topics include:

- Staying motivated when goals seem unattainable.
- Identifying things in your life that you are passionate about and willing to make sacrifices for.
- Standing beside “ugliness” and challenging it.
- Supporting the dreams of others that you may not appreciate, for the better of the community.
- Supporting the community by showing support for other’s victories.
- Being comfortable with conflict.
- Various leadership and diversity topics.

Who should I contact to get more information?

To sign up to facilitate a breakout discussion or to attend the program, contact Kim Graham at x1669, graham@lasalle.edu or Jenean Snider at x1699, snider@lasalle.edu.

Once a schedule has been finalized, we will send a copy to all members of the faculty and staff with an invitation to attend.

Re: Resident/Community Assistant Selection

The fall 2000 semester is quickly winding down. For Community Development, this means the start of recruiting efforts for the 2001-2002 Resident and Community Assistant Staff. In our preparations, we are seeking your assistance.

In your position, you come in contact with students who have the potential to become tomorrow's student leaders. Through RA positions, we offer an opportunity, which will allow those students to develop that potential. A Resident Assistant is a paraprofessional staff member of Community Development. It is the responsibility of the RA to supplement and complement the process of formal education by enhancing the quality of life in the residential facilities. Therefore, we are seeking individuals who demonstrate initiative, dependability, and a positive attitude. The positions in our upper-class apartment and townhouse facilities are called Community Assistants. While many of the same characteristics apply for both CA and RA applicants, for CAs we are especially looking for current sophomores or juniors who show the unique balance of being able to relate to and motivate their peers while serving as a positive role model who can hold their peers accountable for their actions.

I would like you to use the form below to recommend possible RA and CA candidates. Please write the names and addresses of these students and return it to April Herring, Associate Director of Community Development, Box 819 by Friday, December 1, 2000. These nominated students will be given information about the RA and/or CA position and application process.

Thank you in advance for your prompt attention to this matter. Your time and energy will benefit us all!!!! If you have any questions about the process or either of the positions, please feel free to contact me at X1550.
